Good Luck Chelsay!

Community Support Worker Chelsay has been with Community Enablement Team for five years. Within this time, Chelsay has been supported in studying for her social work degree to progress along her chosen career path. Chelsay will be leaving us to work for the Local Authorities' Looked After Children's Department. Chelsay will be missed but we wish her the very best of luck!

A Donation of Masks

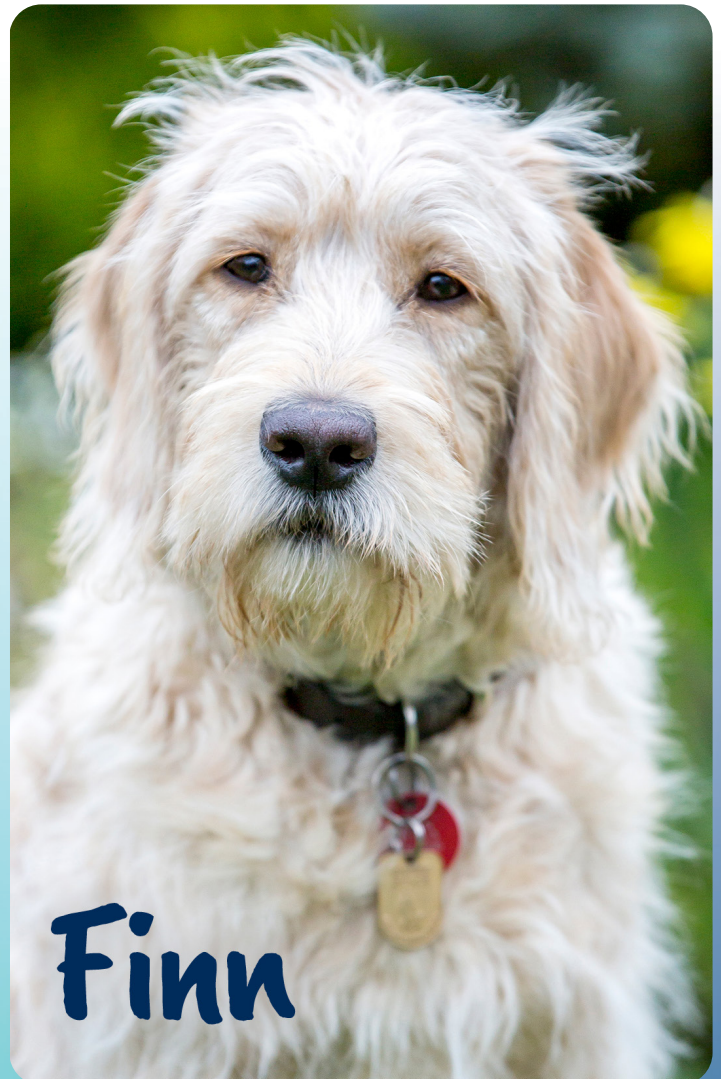

Many thanks to Shelagh's Sewing Circle for a very kind donation of masks that are being put to use good by our service users.

You can follow this brilliant work by searching for "Shelagh's Sewing Circle" on Facebook.

A Pupdate from Finn!

Our sponsored guide dog Finn, continues to do brilliantly, he is really growing up to be a smart and gorgeous boy!

Time to Relax

Some of our Enablement Care Residents have recently enjoyed a spot of pampering amongst some other great activities.
